THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF LIFE

One may take it that no man is sent into the world a ready-made success. It all depends upon the circumstances of life. No one is safe right up to the end, and events may combine to make the very best of us into that thing which the world calls a villain—Henry Seton Merriman.

Mrs. E. O. Carter was hostess of a charming informal party yesterday afternoon, planned in courtesy to Mrs. Don Hagler of Denver, Col., who is visiting in the city.

It was a group of about thirty matrons, all of whom are long-time friends of the honoree, that made up the company which spent a genuinely delightful afternoon in chatting and reminiscing, playing needles, tating shuffles, or croquet books the while. The rooms were simply decorated in a profusion of flowers from the gardens of the Carter home. Cooling punch was served at intervals during the afternoon and at refreshment time plates of ice and cakes were passed. The Misses Margaret and Jean Hagler lending assistance to the Misses Carter in these duties.

A Foreword About Preserves and Marmalade.

When you wish to prepare preserves, fruit butters, marmalades, etc., in fact any confection which requires great care to prevent burning or sticking when cooked upon the top of the stove, the oven, moderately heated, is your best friend. Do everything ready in the usual way and when prepared for the final boiling process, place the fruit in granite or enameled pans in the lower part of the oven, close the door and just let them cook being careful not to get the fire too hot. A steady moderate heat, such as is used in baking a fruit cake is the right thing. Once in an hour or so stir the fruit thoroughly, as the upper portion will otherwise become dry and may scorch. I make all sorts of preserves in this way. They cook slowly, the fruits preserve their shape and are delicious. Try it for orange marmalade in the spring and you will keep on I believe. Peach plum, pear butter, etc., can be cooked in a large quantity in any kettle or small granite dishpan—anything that your oven will contain. Catsups, etc., can be made in the same way. They can be cooked while the upper part of the stove is in use and if once this method is tried, no one will be willing to go back to the drudgery over the hot stove, where constant watchfulness is required.—Mrs. A. S.

Brown Tonic.

Two cupfuls sugar, 1 cupful water, 1 teaspoonful baking powder, 4 egg whites.

Boil the sugar and water together for a few minutes. In the meantime whip the egg whites until dry and ragged. Pour in a little of the syrup, whipping constantly. Return remaining syrup to the heat and cook until it barely threads. Then whip this syrup into the egg mixture and when all is in, place the pan over hot water to steam. Add the baking powder, lifting up the mixture from the sides and bottom without further beating. Cook until the mixture will turn in points when it is lifted up. It may then be used for fluting and the making of orchids.

Croquette Cabbage.

Two cupfuls finely chopped cabbage, 1 quart milk, 4 eggs, 1 cupful good sized onion, 1 cupful chicken fat, dripping, or olive oil, 1 small bay leaf, salt and pepper to taste.

Mince the onion and brown it in the fat, then add two cupfuls of hot water, the cabbage, and the onion, which has been previously soaked in water and then squeezed dry; add the seasoning. Let this mixture cook gently for thirty minutes, stirring frequently, and when dark brown and very thick, remove to individual ramekins. End with bread crumbs and bake in a hot oven.

Russian Pudding.

Two tablespoonfuls granulated gelatin, 1 quart milk, 4 eggs, 1 cupful sugar, 1 teaspoonful vanilla, 1 dozen dry macaroons.

Put gelatin and milk together in a double boiler and let stand over a slow heat until the gelatin is dissolved. Beat the egg yolks and sugar together combine with the milk, and let cook until a coating is formed on the spoon. Stir this mixture into the egg whites beaten stiff and add the vanilla. Line a mold with the macaroons broken in bits and when the pudding mixture is slightly cooled pour it into the mold. Chill for a few hours until stiff. Unmold and serve with whipped cream.

Herrings in Oil.

Clean, wash, and dry the herrings, dust with flour, and fry them until a golden brown in olive oil, salting as they are removed from the oil. Allow a scant tablespoonful of oil to each fish. Put in a saucepan with a little garlic and a bit of sage (1 clove of garlic and 1/2 teaspoonful of sage to four fish). Add as much vinegar as there is oil, let boil for two or three minutes, and pour over the fish. They will keep for some time if entirely covered with the oil; if they will not become dry.

Parsnip Balls.

One cupful cooked, mashed parsnips, 1/2 cupful cracker crumbs (scented), 1 egg yolk, 1/2 cupful coarsely ground nut meats.

Combine the parsnips, cracker crumbs, and egg yolk; salt to taste. Shape the mixture in balls, roll them in the nut meats, and fry in deep fat hot enough to brown a bit of bread in forty seconds.

Cream Tapioca With Strawberries.

One-half cupful tapioca, 1 quart scalded milk, 2 eggs, 2 cupful sugar, 1 teaspoonful vanilla, 1 cupful strawberries, 1/2 cupful powdered sugar. Scald the milk, add the tapioca, and cook for 15 minutes in a

The Nation's Birthday and the Victrola

Do you want your children to love their country? Patriotism is a feeling. It cannot be taught—it must be inspired. The spirit of patriotism is most stirringly expressed in music, and every American home should enjoy some of the "love-of-country" music on the Fourth.

This nation is rich in a variety of such music, from patriotic ragtime and dance numbers like "America, I Love You," to the martial fire of Sousa's marches, and the sonorous grandeur of "America." The Victrola brings the best and most appealing of all these types right into your home, and several selections are listed here:

America, I Love You	American Quartet	Number One
You'll Be There	Peerless Quartet	17902 10 $ .75
Washington Post March	Sousa's Band	17302 10 $ .75
El Capitan March	Sousa's Band
Star Spangled Banner	Victor Military Band	17581 10 $ .75
Hail Columbia	Victor Military Band

We have a complete list of patriotic records for you. Come in and hear them—then choose yours.

If you haven't a Victor or Victrola, we have them from $10 to $300, and we'll make it easy for you to get one for the Fourth.

Just before serving, beat together the egg whites, sugar and berries, which should be stiff, and mix with the baking powder, which should be sprinkled lightly over the top, pour into a well-buttered baking dish, and bake slowly until puffy and brown, about 30 minutes.
